From Sydney CBD, either take a taxi, use the bus or the Light Rail

By Taxi

You are heading to Jones Bay Wharf. The driver will usually know The Flying Fish, a famous restaurant on our wharf which we are very close to. If he doesn't, we are also close to the Channel 7 building.

Jones Bay Wharf's car park does not offer visitor parking however taxis are allowed in to set you down. When the taxi is driven past the boom gate, approx 60metres down, you will see the break out section of the complex where you see boats and water to the left. Hop out of the taxi and exit outside there, then turn right towards to tip of wharf and approx 25metres down you will see number 88 on your right.

L By Light Rail

For the Light Rail, at Central Station catch this from upstairs near the main entrance to The Star, which is 6 stops and around 10-12 mins.

B By Bus

Bus 389 goes to Jones Bay Wharf, where we are located. It leaves from Stand J at Town Hall every ten minutes. Hop off at the Jones Bay Wharf stop, the wharf is right in front of you. Walk into the wharf along the water, towards the tip of the wharf until you see number 88 on your right.

Further Directions from The Star

- Exit the station onto the road side, not upstairs into the Casino. It's the opposite side to the one you arrive on, so cross over the track and walk outside through the doors onto Pirrama Road.
- Turn left and walk along Pirrama Road.
- You come to a roundabout. Go across it.
- You should be at the Channel Seven building (it has the red 7 logo on the outside). Make sure you're on that side of the street.
- Walk further along and you will see a big sign for 'Jones Bay Wharf, Doltone House'. This is the wharf we are on but we are on the other side, so keep walking along Pirrama Road.
- Past the dark car park entrance
- You then arrive at our side of the wharf. There is a cafe on the corner. Walk along that side next to the boats.
- We are near the end of the wharf, number 88 with a big green door. Currently we have our "Enjoyaus.com" branding on that door.
- If you get stuck, you can ask anyone the way to the Flying Fish restaurant. Nearly everyone will know this.

See you soon
